Joy Ahn Ngu is the fashion-forward mother of two who has helped her parents, beloved Pastor Ché Ahn and his dynamic wife Pastor Sue Ahn, add and develop a media branch to their internationally-recognized Christian networks including Harvest Rock Church in Pasadena, California and HIM International Ministries which comprises tens of thousands of churches worldwide. Poised for success, Joy was raised in the Christian ministry from the early days when her parents would hold services within their own home for just friends and family.

Soon, though, the ministry grew and the Ahn family name became synonymous with Evangelical Family success stories. "My parents have always sought to be vulnerable and to use our family experiences as testimony whenever possible," Joy explains, "which is why I believe that we are relatable and likable and have had a profound impact in the communities they Pastor."

Today, Joy Ahn Ngu lives in Pasadena, California with her husband and two small children. She is the executive producer and co-host on the hit show on God TV- Equipping the Saints with Ché Ahn - where sought-after Christian leaders such as Cindy Jacobs and Mark Chironna discuss a multitude of fascinating topics and everyday interests. "The show was entirely my father's vision. What I love about my dad is his ability to relate empathetically to all people. I have a deep respect for him because he is Kingdom minded - to him it is always about how he can help others," Joy explains, "The show provides a look inside personal relationships, personal stories, and very real vulnerable moments. It's very special and like nothing else, because it brings internationally recognized preachers, evangelists, leaders and prophets into a safe space and introduces the viewer to their most relatable sides."

Equipping the Saints with Ché Ahn airs Tuesdays at 8:30pm EST on GOD TV!
